

HOME NEWS.

THE CITY.

The steamer Bremen left this port yesterday, carrying out $3,000 in specie.

About 25 or 30 hydrants are to be put up in the city during the coming season.

The Erie and other canals of the State are to be opened formally on the 6th of May.

The Police report several dangerous holes in Courtland st. The Croton Road has been informed.

Five more of the Third-ave. Railroad conductors were summarily dismissed yesterday.

Thomas Mays, a laborer, fell down the hatchway of the ship Webster yesterday, and was badly hurt.

The Board of Audit did no business yesterday.

Mr. Allen T. Thompson, a distinguished temperance orator, is to lecture, this evening, in the Clinton armory. M. E. Church (the Rev. George Lansing Taylor's).

The ladies of St. Timothy's Protestant Episcopal Church closed their car, which has been in session Tuesday.

John B. Gough delivered his lecture on "Education and Orators" to a rather small, but seemingly pleased and interested audience in Coopers Hall last evening.

Mr. Peter Cooper, President of the American Industrial League, invited a conference of the friends of American Industry, in the Metropolitan Hotel, on Tuesday, the 23d inst.

Mrs. Mary Muller, one of the persons burned and injured by fire, from an upper window of the burning building in Brooklyn, died yesterday morning.

Edward Mills, the Thirteen-Zimmer, a German, and a son, a dragoon, pronounced himself in the Pacific Guards, in the Bowery, last evening. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

The $20,000 legacy of Ralph S. Fritz, the benevolent citizen of San Francisco, who recently quenched that amount to help pay the national debt, was deposited yesterday in the Bank of the Treasury.

A board fence at the corner of Port Washington-st. and Broadway, near James Nolan of No. 24 West Forty-ninth, was leaning yesterday afternoon, so way precipitating him down an embankment. He was severely injured.

Catharine Kelland, who was severely bruised on the thigh, a few days ago, at No. 49 Cherry-st., by a man who had been arrested, was yesterday committed to the Tomb, to await the action of a Coroner.

The body of an unknown man, about 35 years old, was found yesterday floating in the water off the Battery. Coroner Schindler will hold an inquest to determine the cause of death.

GLEN COVE, N. Y.—The Rev. Charles Buckman preached a powerful sermon on Sunday evening.

WEEKSVILLE, L. I.—The Rev. Henry M. Wilson, of the African Civilization Society and Home at Weeksville, has published a reply to the charges that have been made against him.

HUNTINGTON, L. I.—The poor-house property has been exchanged for Smith's farm at Long Swamp. The paupers will soon be removed.

NORTHPORTE, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

FRANCIS KELLY, 11 years old, employed by the American Veneer Company, at their manufactory, No. 20 Monroe-st., walked into an unguarded steam boiler on the first floor, to the amount of $3,000; insured for $500. The building, owned by Theodore Burgoon, is to extend to 300 feet.

"Hygiene, or the Rules of Health" will be the subject of the trial, to be by Willard Parker, after the trial of the Young Men's Christian Association, now existing in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, on Fourth-ave. and Twenty-third-st. The lecture will be free, and will be given monthly.

FRANCIS KELLY, 11 years old, employed by the American Veneer Company, at their manufactory, No. 20 Monroe-st., walked into an unguarded steam boiler on the first floor, to the amount of $3,000; insured for $500. The building, owned by Theodore Burgoon, is to extend to 300 feet.

MOUNT VERNON, Pa.—On Wednesday morning John Darnas, while walking along the track, was run over by a train at the Hartland Engine Works, and was killed.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

MORRISANIA.—On Wednesday night John Darnas, while walking along the track, was run over by a train at the Hartland Engine Works, and was killed.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A bill is now before the Legislature, authorizing the Commissioners of Highways to petition to extend the Mill road and the roads connecting with them.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in greenbacks, $5 worth of cigars, and other articles, abstracted. The men have been arrested.

STATE ISLAND, L. I.—A CRIMINAL is being tried for the parricidal killing of his wife and a new road to the post office. Four vessels were recently laying in Northport Harbor. A schooner and a smack, now building, are nearly ready for launching.

HUDSON CITY.—Bridget Connolly, a servant in the employ of a family named McAlpine, residing near Five Corners, attempted to poison the family, on Sunday evening last, by putting arsenic in the tea-cups. Mrs. McAlpine was sent from the city, by a few hours, and recovered in time to save her life. The engineer returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, and condemned the company because the engineer had not put on the bridge soon enough, and from the time that the engineer was sent away, he was not to return. On Tuesday, the 16th, the engineer was sent back to the middle of the day, Brian Flanagan, a resident at Morrisania, was seized with a fit while sitting by the fire, and fell with his head on the stove. No person was in the room at the time, and the engineer was the only person present. The engineer was found to be terribly maimed. He has recovered his consciousness, but cannot possibly survive. Last night, a small wooden house corner of Forest-ave. and Wall-st., caught fire, and was burned beyond repair. The cause could be presumed. No one, however, was hurt.

CROTON FALLS.—A robbery was effected at the harness-store of J. Abrams, on Monday night, and a lot of goods and $15 in money taken away.

MOUNT VERNON.—Paul Schieren, a young man about 18 years of age, was arrested on Tuesday last and taken before Justice Weeks on the charge of horse-stealing, preferred against him, by a man who had been shot in the face. The man, who had been shot, was taken to the police station. On Tuesday, the 16th, he was tried, and was sentenced to the state prison for two years.

PORT CHESTER.—A burglar was committed early in the week at Van Slyck's house, and $8 in green